I Know How She Does It Laura Vanderkam, 2017-01-03 Everyone has an opinion anecdote or horror story about women and work Now the acclaimed author of What the Most Successful People Do Before Breakfast shows how real working women with families are actually making the most of their time Having it all has become the subject of countless books articles debates and social media commentary with passions running high in all directions Many now believe this to be gospel truth Any woman who wants to advance in a challenging career has to make huge sacrifices She's unlikely to have a happy marriage quality time with her kids assuming she can have kids at all a social life hobbies or even a decent night's sleep But what if balancing work and family is actually not as hard as it's made out to be What if all those tragic anecdotes ignore the women who quietly but consistently do just fine with the juggle Instead of relying on scattered stories time management expert Laura Vanderkam set out to add hard data to the debate She collected hour by hour time logs from 1,001 days in the lives of women who make at least 100,000 a year And she found some surprising patterns in how these women spend the 168 hours that every one of us has each week Overall these women worked less and slept more than they assumed they did before they started tracking their time They went jogging or to the gym played with their children scheduled date nights with their significant others and had lunches with friends They made time for the things that gave them pleasure and meaning fitting the pieces together like tiles in a mosaic without adhering to overly rigid schedules that would eliminate flexibility and spontaneity Vanderkam shares specific strategies that her subjects use to make time for the things that really matter to them For instance they Work split shifts such as seven hours at work four off then another two at night from home This allows them to see their kids without falling behind professionally Get creative about what counts as quality family time Breakfasts together and morning story time count as much as daily family dinners and they re often easier to manage Take it easy on the housework You can free up a lot of time by embracing the philosophy of good enough and getting help from other members of your household or a cleaning service Guard their leisure time Full weekend getaways may be rare but many satisfying hobbies can be done in small bursts of time An hour of crafting feels better than an hour of reality TV With examples from hundreds of real women Vanderkam proves that you don t have to give up on the things you really want I Know How She Does It will inspire you to build a life that works one hour at a time She Did It! Emily Arnold McCully,2018-11-04 Prepare to discover new heroes among these twenty one women who challenged the status quo championed others and made their voices heard From Jane Addams to Alice Waters from groundbreaking artists and social justice advocates to scientific pioneers and business innovators a strong thread of trailblazing women runs through American history Written in compelling accessible prose and vividly illustrated by Caldecott Medalist Emily Arnold McCully this collection of inspiring and expertly researched profiles charts the bold paths these women forged in the twentieth century The subjects profiled include Jane Addams Ethel Percy Drusilla Baker Gertrude Berg Rachel Carson Shirley Chisholm Joan Cooney Isadora Duncan Barbara Gittings Temple Grandin Grace Hopper Dolores Huerta Billie Jean King Dorothea Lange Patsy Mink Vera Rubin Margaret Sanger Gladys Tantaquidgeon Ida M Tarbell Madame C J Walker Alice Waters Second Wave Feminism

Brutally Honest Melanie Brown, Louise Gannon, 2018-11-27 Utterly absorbing and deeply affecting. The Guardian. As a Spice Girl TV talent show judge and Broadway star, Mel B aka Scary Spice has been a global icon since her twenties. But behind the glittering facade of fame, the struggles and pain of this working-class mixed-race girl from Leeds are laid bare in her critically acclaimed best-selling memoir Brutally Honest. With deep personal insight, remarkable frankness, and trademark Yorkshire humour, the book tells how she went from Girl Power to girl powerless during her ten-year emotionally abusive marriage. Tracing a path through the key moments in her life, she reflects on her childhood, rise to fame, and her chilling downward spiral before she finally broke free. In this expanded edition, written with Louise Gannon, Mel brings her story up to date. With her trademark honesty, she tells the unfiltered story of piecing herself back together, dealing with trauma and new heartbreak whilst becoming a champion for survivors of abuse, performing once more with the Spice Girls, and receiving her MBE from Prince William.

A Woman in Residence Michelle Harrison, 1993-09 An eye opener. A WOMAN IN RESIDENCE is filled with integrity. PHYLLIS CHSLER. This true story based on diaries Dr. Michelle Harrison kept throughout her months of residency in OB/GYN draws us into the serious and thrilling work of delivering new life into the world and into Dr. Harrison's own struggle to reconcile the often startling difference between patient care and hospital convenience. She writes about her patients for whom she never had quite enough time, about her colleagues with whom she did not always agree about the excitement of learning new procedures, about the pressures that never let up. She brings us as close as most of us are likely to come to the intense inner life of a big hospital.

Personal History Katharine Graham, 2018-03-29 As seen in the new movie The Post directed by Steven Spielberg and starring Meryl Streep, here is the captivating inside story of the woman who piloted the Washington Post during one of the most turbulent periods in the history of American media. In this bestselling and widely acclaimed memoir, Katharine Graham, the woman who piloted the Washington Post through the scandals of the Pentagon Papers and Watergate, tells her story, one that is extraordinary both for the events it encompasses and for the courage, candour, and dignity of its telling. Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson, plunge into the mental illness that would culminate in his suicide. And here is the widow who shook off her grief and insecurity to take on a president and a pressman's union as she entered the profane boys club of the newspaper business As timely now as ever Personal History is an exemplary record of our history and of the woman who played such a shaping role within them discovering her own strength and sense of self as she confronted and mastered the personal and professional crises of her fascinating life I Didn't Do It!
